Abstract THE TIGER

Eastern Front, 1943: The five-man crew of a German Tiger tank is sent on a secret mission far behind the fiercely contested front line. As they make their way through no-man's-land, the soldiers not only get deeper and deeper into enemy territory but also have to face their own fears and abysses. Fueled by the Wehrmacht's methamphetamine, their mission increasingly becomes a journey into the heart of darkness ...

The gripping anti-war film THE TIGER is a PANTALEON Films production for Amazon Prime Video, directed by Dennis Gansel. Producers are Frank Kusche and Dan Maag. The leading roles are played by David Schütter, Laurence Rupp, Leonard Kunz, Sebastian Urzendowsky, Yoran Leicher, Tilman Strauß, and André M. Hennicke.

Stephanie Schettler-Köhler, CEO of PANTAFLIX AG: "The production of THE TIGER with director Dennis Gansel and his impressive cast once again underlines PANTAFLIX's ability to realize demanding and challenging material.
